

Camp Andree Clark

Camp Andree Clark is owned and operated by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. It is located across the road from the Edith Macy Conference Center in Briarcliff Manor, New York, approximately 40 miles north of New York City and is part of the Macy operation. Facilities at Camp Andree are available for use by Girl Scouts of Girl Scout Councils affiliated groups who have their council's approval.

Facilities:

The facilities available for Girl Scout groups are:
2 winterized cabins-day or overnight use
Picnic facilities- indoor or outdoor

Site and Resources: The site has a number of hiking trails and roads. There is a small lake on site, but no boating or swimming. Each facility has a fire circle for limited outdoor cooking and campfires. Each cabin has a fireplace.

Camp Andree is located near the Chappaqua train station, which is approximately 10 minutes away. The train is an excellent method of transportation to New York City - Grand Central Station. There is meter parking available at the train station

The Westchester area includes many scenic and historical attractions. Bear Mountain State Park is located approximately a half an hour away and features many attractions. The park has seven lakes which offer boating and beaches, picnic areas, hiking trails, a zoo, ice skating in the winter months, shows and exhibits, and a beautiful view of the Hudson River and surrounding valley. Located close to Bear Mountain is West Point where tours of the town and military academy are readily available.

Historical Tarrytown and legendary Sleepy Hollow are approximately 15 minutes away. Tarrytown offers many sites of interest including Lyndhurst Castle, and Philipsburg Manor.
